Fifty Years Married Today

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth G. MacKay will celebrate their 50th wedding anniversary today with an "at home" in Centennial United Church hall from 2 to 4 p.m., and from 7 to 9.30 p.m. They were married in the Scotch Kirk, Mhow, India. They returned to Canada in 1912, and Mr. MacKay joined the staff of the Saskatchewan department of agriculture and later the federal dairy branch. The MacKays came to Victoria when Mr. MacKay retired to live at 347A Gorge Road West. Expected in the city for the anniversary is a son, James, Winnipeg, and Dr. and Mrs. H. H. Colwell of Maple Bay. A daughter, Mrs. A. B. Young, Victoria, and a granddaughter, Miss Margaret Young, will also be present.—(Colonist photo)

PERSONAL MENTION

Bride-Elect Honored

Honoring Miss Bernice Burley, April bride-to-be, a miscellaneous shower was given by Mrs. A. K. Harrison, 2510 Cadboro Bay Road, with Mrs. R. Grant as co-hostess. Orchid corsages were presented on arrival: white for the guest of honor, and mauve blooms for her aunt, Mrs. H. Bickford and Mrs. H. Rumsby, mother of the groom-elect. A basket decorated in turquoise and white, held the many gifts.

Guests were Mrs. C. Cox, Mrs. R. Henning; Mrs. J. Harding, Mrs. B. Bickford, Mrs. C. Steele, Mrs. A. McKinnon, Mrs. N. Crist, Mrs. P. Walker, Mrs. T. Bird, Mrs. M. McIlldoon, Mrs. A. Curtis, Mrs. N. Collis, Mrs. M. Phillips, Mrs. H. Devine, Mrs. E. Collis, Mrs. W. Gornall, Mrs. W. Vey and Miss Jean Crist. A shower-cake made by Mrs. A. McKinnon, was cut by the bride-elect.

'Handicap' Time In Britain

LONDON (UPI)—Midwives and maternity homes are preparing for their busiest two weeks of the year.

Babies born before midnight a week from Sunday earn their parents tax exemption for the entire year, and a great deal of family planning is based on this.

Statistics show March is the biggest birthday month because of this 100-pound ($280) exemption. The midwives call the final two weeks the "Spring Handicap."

The Ladies Pharmaceutical Auxiliary will meet at the home of Mrs. Frank Boughey, 2672 Topp Avenue, tomorrow at 8.15 p.m.

Got Any Mad Money?

Got a little mad money to fling around? Well, I found a few spare cents and spent them on knicks-knacks and odds and ends useful and colorful in the home.

Novel salt and pepper shakers are fun to give or receive as gifts. One pair I noticed was in the shape of a broody hen sitting on a china nest. Lift the hen and you find two shakers in the shape of eggs. Different—at $1.25.

Copperware may soon be at a premium so you'd be wise to take advantage of a bargain-priced set of copper candlesticks for $2.95.

* * *

Smart accessory for a patio table now the days are warming up or for a folksy recreation room are these wrought-iron candlesticks about a foot high with a lacework iron shade. Sell for $5.50 each.

* * *

Perfect finish for a perfect meal is a slice of cheese. A cheese plate deluxe is one with the names of the more famous kinds of cheese written on it in gold and cheese knife included in a fancy china holder in the shape of a cheese wedge and decorated with a tiny mouse. It sells for $1.95.

* * *

Another novelty item is a "mousetrap" letter holder with a calendar attached. Letters are "caught" in the coiled spring of this desk gadget that sells for $2.50.

* * *

Planning a trip to Europe soon? A handy item to take along is a currency converter. Made in real leather, black or brown, these work on the principle of the slide rule. You have so many Canadian dollars and the counter will show you what they're equal to in francs, lire, marks, pounds etc. It's only $1.25.

* * *

Also for you trippers, there's a practical as well as beautiful jewel case with three zippered suede pouches inside a hard leather case that's strapped for safety. Price is $10.

* * *

For the little westerners at your house, I saw a teepee lamp, painted with Indian motifs for $5.95. This would make a fine Easter gift along with chocolates from Holland in the shape of an artist's palette with brushes and oils of chocolate wrapped in colorful foil. Set sells for 60 cents.
